

Youth Justice Fund: Drug Treatment

The Youth Justice Fund is not currently accepting new proposals. Please check this web site periodically for updates.

Objectives

The Government of Canada's National Anti-Drug Strategy aims to contribute to safer and healthier communities through coordinated efforts to prevent use, treat dependency and reduce production and distribution of illicit drugs through three action plans: prevention, treatment and enforcement.

The Youth Justice Fund's Drug Treatment component supports the treatment action plan of the National Anti-Drug Strategy.

Funding Priorities

- Introduction, piloting and evaluation of drug treatment programming for youth involved in the justice system.
- Provision of training on effective interventions with youth with substance abuse issues for justice professionals and/or youth service providers.
- Conferences or workshops that share knowledge of promising practices or programs among justice professionals and/or youth service providers.
- Research that advances the current body of knowledge relating to drug addiction and treatment options, for youth in the justice system in Canada.

For general information on eligible activities, see Youth Justice Fund. For a full listing of eligible activities, see Terms and Conditions for Youth Justice Fund Grants and Terms and Conditions for Youth Justice Fund Contributions.
